

KATE FARRER

Bespoke Embroidery

Why not put a spring in your step? Develop a new skill and meet like minded creative people?

Whether you're a beginner or have experience, we are sure you will enjoy a class to develop your embroidery skills or inspire you to try something new. Textile artist and qualified teacher Kate Farrer trained at the Royal School of Needlework and is now running "hands on" classes in Hand Embroidery with collaboration of guest RSN Embroidery tutors.

Introduction to hand embroidery – With Kate Farrer - Saturday the 28th of March – 10am-4pm. Class cost £75.00 plus class kit at £15.00

Whether you're a complete beginner or just a bit 'rusty' this is a great place to start. Introduction to Embroidery will introduce you to a wide range of stitches.

Introduction to Jacobean- With Lizzy Lansberry - Saturday the 4th of April – 10am – 4pm. Class cost £75.00 plus class kit at £22.00

Ideal for beginners, Jacobean Crewelwork was developed in the 17th Century and uses a range of stitches in crewel wool worked on linen. The design will include the most commonly used stitches.

Developing Jacobean Embroidery – Lizzy Lansberry – Saturday the 13th of June and Sunday the 14th June – 10am – 4pm. Class cost £120 plus class kit at £28.00

You will learn the key elements of Jacobean style embroidery and then use these to design your own piece with guidance from your tutor to create your own unique embroidery.

The cost of each class is payable when booking along with the class kit cost. All class materials and refreshments are provided. Please note that lunch is not included in this price.

Further details are available on Kate's website and blog:
www.bespokeembroidery.net

Bookings please email kate@bespokeembroidery.net or phone on: 07958 189349

Classes are held at; St Lawrence Parish Room, Colebrook Street, Winchester, SO23 9LH

